MONDAY MORNING, FEB. 22, 1858.

Republican State Committee. A meeting of the Hepublican State Com-nature will be held in Providence, on Wed-nesday, Feb. 24th, at 11-1-2 o'clock, A. M.-Ment'ers are particularly requested to be in attended, as bediens of importance will be brought be fore them.

RDWARD HARRIS, EDWARD W. LAWTON, R. R. HAZARD, Ja., Siate Co.a.

) . What Sext !

Our "Republican Central State Committee" are a most benevolent brotherhood -They issued a call for a Republican Convention, as of yore, and as in duty bound, a while ago, -but their hearts yearned family toward a few of the "salt of the carth," who could not conscienciously join that "wooly" party, and consequently issued a new cult for an " American Republican Convention" calculated to include some of the brethren who as heretofore would be elected by Republican votes, and then announce themselves, as " successful speculators in wool?"

We would remind our committee that there are other wailing unfortunates in our midst, and they ought to be accommudated by a " Douglas Republican Convention"and still another class anxious about the "Marriage relation"-so that if they are really in carnest in their benevolence, they may establish a " Political House of Refuge" -and call an "Americo-Anti Mormon, Douglas, Republican Convention" which would unite all the elements of opposition to Poor Buck,-except that barning in the hearts of autiquated Spinisters for his lonely social condition.

We recommend a change in the call forthwith, to embrace the whole catalogue, (except the Spinisters, that wouldn't be proper.) But seriously, what is our State Committee about? What business have they with "American Republicans," and to provide for the election of an "American Republican State Committee." They were not chosen to surrender the record, but to keep it, and we trust will consider the folly of this step -and recede while they can.

So the Lion is to put on the Ass's skin i It is true he may roar as lustily in the disguise as before, but he will look like an Ass af er all.—The experiment is not new, and the loss of two Congressmen in Connecticut where alone the experiment was tried, isn't so very successful as to demand immediate: imitation from us.

We can speak for ourselves alone it is true,-but we shall hong out the Republican Plaz in National matters-(may fuse or freeze a little in local politics, when advisable,) but Not onally we shall fight under that flag, and no other, as long as there is fifty thousand diameter! The "State Committee" is respectfully requested to put that in their pipe, and smoke it.

A MOTHER'S LOVE.—What sweet poetry is contained in these three little words. Is there a sentence to be found in any language that is more replies with sentiment, beauty, grace, or faish. A mother's love! How mothe! How self-sacrificing! How unceasing are her efforts in guiding oright the footsteps of her children! What privation will be not enlight; what harifs will tion will she not endure; what perils will she not encounter for the sake of her floved ones? From our earliest infately its our mother who watches over us with multiplicated devotion; who notes every change in our looks, both in looks, both in Fekness, and looks, both in looks, both in processing the perils and with larger texts around mornal devotion. health, and, with loving eyes twined around us, bids us nestle close, close, up to her breast. And oh! with what perfect confibreast. And oh! with what perfect confidence we nestle there! Fearung nathing, and to be filled more closely and feel the warm pressure of her lips upon our cheeks. How our hearts bound beneath the loveful glances of her soul-lit eyes, as she bends them upon us heaming with a light so pure and holy!—With what delight does she listen to our childish prattle, and observe each winning grace!—How fouldly she gazes upon us, and what a glorious future she paints for us!—Then, as the thought contes that, as we alwance in years, she may be taken from us. vance in years, she may be taken from us and we he left to the cold charities of the world, her heartfelt prayer ascende to the Throne of Grace, beseeching Him to guide prepared to meet her in a brighter and bet-ter world. Sorrows may come upon us, and the world present not one cheering ray, yet will our mother cling to us with a yet will our moner enig tow will a leve so abilding that her cheering tongs and lov-ing words make us forget the world's rude and bitter jests. Never, on this earth, can we find a frimd so steadfast, and one in whom we can repose such perfect confi-dence as our mother. How holy is a moth-er's lose; er's love!

THACKERAY ON WASHINGTON.-II'mself of the most scrupulous good breeding, in his communication with other folks, he appeared to exact, or, at any rate, to occasion the same behavior. His nature was above the same behavior. His nature was above levity and jokes: they seemed out of place when addressed to him. He was slow of comprehending them, and they slunk as it were abashed out of his society. "He always seemed great to me," says Harry Warrington, in one of his letters many years after the date of which we are writing; "and I never though the him otherwise than and I never thought of him otherwise than of a hero. When he came over to Castleof a hero. When he came over to Castle-wood and taught us boys surreging, to see him riding hourds, was as if charging an army. If he fired a shot, I thought the bird must come down; and if he flung a net, the must come down; and if he fluing a net, the largest fish in the river was sure to be in it. It is words were always few, but they were always wise; they were not idle, as our words are—they nere grave, wher, and strong, and ready on one shouted their duty. In spire of his antipathy to him, bother respected and white it the General as taken as I did; that is to say, more than any mortal man." any mortal man,

States—and what it is in a about—I axed our member of the Sembly consarring it, but he coulden tell me much. Only he said it was a sort of a big book the lawyers got up last winter, and had printed in the foringness language that mobody but themselves could read right, and then got it put through some Grand

Mr. Garke, from the Committee on the Uniform reads an adverse request upon right, and then got it put through some Grand Committee all divided off in chapters and varues just like the Hible, who greed to make it the law of Rhode Island State. Now's Is'e in ignerant man, how's got a little house and lot and a wife and a yow and thirteen children af er one more is come that my old woman spects soon. So you see it is no more than fair that I should know something about them there laws, more ticularly because Deacon Smith tells me that these lawyers have grown the northard, and that they had a meetin and resolved that they have as good a right to live as anybody clse, by the bisness they have been brought up to, and the Deacon says that he has bearn they made a law and put it in their bible, so that they can lake a man's lot of land away from him in a ginin or before he can say Jack Rubinson. But the Deacon says that if I want to know how it is I must self my cow and carry the money she fetches to lawyer Skinner and ask him to tell me all about it, cause the lawyer, he says, has just as good a right to splain any compter or varse in their bable to columnia sort of oren as the minister has lisen. Now I can well spine the old con just at this time treaterly, so I thought before I took Deacon fromth space I would ask you about the lawyer's Bible. Thever knowed tauen atom the laws, septing what I got by reading my paper when the Sembiy was settrag. I used to guess pretty nigh what sort of laws they was making when you used to tell us something about what it was all amout, but now that you have got a way of printing that the Sembry is menung some chapter and varse only and put it down too in sort of hgers that I never larned at school, it bothers me desprately. I bever did know much bout law, but used to think that there wascut much danger of being coucht and car up by them lawyers, if I only felt every hight when I went to bed that I had tried to do as nigh tight to my neighbors as I could and wasent bindered from keeping to steep till day break by any thing I had done tiling my conscience.

Bu: Deacon tells use, that all that sort of thing is nothing now days, and will not henderine from being subjected to the wath of them Invyers and the penaltys of the law tained in their Bible without I pay them a regiar fee, thone a good life will save me from the ctarnal pains of Hell fire, without paying the minister to splain to me the laws of God. as laid down in tother Bilde. Now, Mr. Printer, seeing Um in such a quander, wont you just be so kind as to tell me something bout that lawyer's Bible, which our Sembly man says has got a jatter cover and some red on . And , and has got comething printed on the back of it,-that as nigh as he can tell means ".auyers libble for the common people of Rhode Island. And wont you just tellus every time you print bour what the Sembly or thein lawyers is doing about making any new chapters bing out any of them that is in the yallow.

The House then alloward to meet covered book, just say's muching bout what it is they are doing so that usignorant men who is spected to obey them lawyers can give some guess about what they want us to do, till the Sembly meete agin next time.

tace and skin. Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative will do all this. See circular and the following.

Ann Hardon, November 5, 1850.

Prof. O. J. Wood—Bear Sir: I haveheard much said of the wasderfulefle to of your Hair Restorative, but having been so often cheated by quanchery and quack nostrums, hair drys, Ac., I was disposed to place your Rest traited in the same category with the thousand and one loudly trumpeted quack remedies, until I met you in Lawrence county some months since, when you gave me such assurance as induced the trial of your Restorative in my family—draft by my good were, whose hair had become very thin and entirely white, and before exhausting uno of your large bottles, her hair was restored nearly to its original beautiful brown color, and had thickened and become beautiful and glossy, upon, and cutirely over the head; she continues to uso it, not simply because of its heatifying effects upon the hair, but because of its heatifying effects upon the hair, but because of its heatifying effects upon the hair, but because of its heaterful indusnee upon the head and mind. Others of my family you friends are using your Restorative, with the happiest effects; therefore, my skepticien and loubts in reference to its character and value are entirely removed; and I can and do most cordicilly and confidentially recommend its use by all who would have their hair restored from white or grey (by remoun of sickness or age,) to original color and beauty, and by all young persons who would have their hair restored from white or grey (by remoun of sickness or age,) to original color and beauty, and by all young persons who would have their hair restored from white or grey (by remoun of sickness or age,) persons who notes, and glossy.

Very truly and gratefully yours, SOLOMON MANN.

Pritery Wood:—It was a long time after I saw you at Missfield before I got the butle of Restorative for which you gave me an order upon your agent in Detroit, and when I got it we cancluded to try it on Mrs. Mann's hair, as the surest test of its power. It has done all that you assured me it would do; and otters of my family and friends, having witnessed its effects, are now using and recommending its use to others as catifled to the highest consideration you claim forit.

Again, very respectfully and truly yours, SOLOMON MANN.

CARLYLE, ILL., June 28, 1872,
I have used Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, and have admired its wonderful effects. My hair was becoming, as I thought, prematurely gray, but by the use of his Restorative it has resunced its original color, and, I have no doubt, permanently sa.

Another fact which the managers call attention to, is, that allpersons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day in the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes. hand. The prices of tickets wary from $1,00 to $20.—No. tickets however, sent unless the monmoney for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and Ternary combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to 1000,000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over. Address T. HUBBARD & Co.

MEDICINES,

THE GREATEST WONDER OF TRE

AGE.

AREMEDY which CURES IN FIVE AMINUTES.—N. LEROUN'S Fresh clothera Cognac Bitters. This truly wonderly selectific compound is recommended by the most emineut and learned physicians of all Europe and America, and enjoys the test rep utation of anything similar ever offered. It is without doubt, the best most efficient and guaerally acknowledged remedy against chelera, dysentery, diarthoca, and complaints of the stomach in general. The numerous patters who have tried it according to directions have invariably found relief in a very about time, and the best proof of it is, that shree this standard remedy wes introduced in the armite of the Allies in the Crimea, the mortelity of the soldlers from cholera and similar disease, wa a chimistical by over 16 per cent; in consideration of which, the involver was presented by the French and English government;
with a gold medal, bearing the inscription,
"Hail! M Leroux, the great chemist and intremore, by whose knowledge our armies are preserved from cholera."

This invaluable preparation is also a remedy for billiousness, indigestion, weakness, and general derangement of the stomach. Upon height taken, it creates appetite, and present
the heaviness attendant upon eating by persons who are dyspeptic.

In this city, also this remeily has be "a tried with the most undoubted sucress and the heing taken, it creases the heaviness attendant upon eating by persons who are dyspeptic.

In this city, also this remedy has been trick with the most undoubted success, and the undersigned can produce the best testimonials of our most celebrated physicians, as to its incomediate and complete success, which he will be happy at any time to show to any that may wish to see them.

S. STEINFELD, Sole Agents for the United States, 70 Nasser street, corner of John, N. Y.
